EXECUTIVE SUMMARY:

Most internet marketing events and training courses promise you the moon but leave you bewildered after the event or training is completed.

“How am I supposed to implement what I’ve been taught?”

Instead, imagine a live event:

- Focused on proven strategies, tactics and formulas that will set you apart from 99% of online business owners.
- With time and opportunity to actually interact and network with the speakers and teachers.
- And limited to 50 participants, where you’re not crammed like a cattle into a room.

This will be an event unlike any other. (It was designed that way.)

Learn From Joel Comm and My “Rock Star” Staff At A Relaxed Setting In the Colorado Rockies!

Dear Friend,

All over the internet, you'll find marketers who make big promises to get you to sign up for their home study course or live event.

All claiming to be exactly what you need to build a successful business online.

It's very easy to become jaded and you find yourself asking:

- Who can you trust?
- Who can really and truly help you?
- Are there any teachers who really want me to succeed in my online business?

Frankly, it's downright scary out there, with all the voices clamoring for your attention and asking you to part with your hard-earned cash in search of your dream.

More than a few have been swindled by sweet-talking salesmen who:

- Know how to "talk the talk".
- But don't "walk the walk"...they don't do the things they teach, and ultimately:
- Fail to deliver what was promised.

Imagine: that "kicked in the gut" feeling when you realize you've been taken for a ride. Ouch.

Well, because of all the broken promises and undelivered expectations out there, people have been begging me to offer my own business-building event.

After years of saying "no", I decided the time has come.

An Exclusive Event

I knew right off the bat that I did not want to pack hundreds of people into a room.

No, that size of a group is way too many for me and my team to work with effectively. Sure, any speaker can teach from the stage, but I prefer to create an environment focused on implementation.

On getting things done.

Warning: Only 50 ~~41~~ 36 27 Seats Remain

I urge you to act right away. We expect the Elevate Seminar to sell out soon. If you sign up now, and if you qualify (as this event is not for everyone...) you can reserve your seat for this life-changing event.

Why Have People Been Begging Me To Do This?

Thousands of people have been helped by the strategies I teach. Here are just a few examples:

- My New York Times Best Selling book, The AdSense Code, showed how anyone with a website could start earning passive income.
- The Next Internet Millionaire, created by me, my partner Eric Holmlund, and my team, was the first internet-based reality show. The twelve contestants –who learned from twelve of the top online marketers- were changed forever, and several have launched their careers online as a result of that experience.
- My brand-new book, Click Here To Order, is already getting rave reviews for its insights into the past, present and future of internet marketing.

I'm not some dude who learned about internet marketing last year and decided to start teaching to support myself. I started teaching only after experiencing extraordinary successes in my own business.

- One of my first ventures, ClassicGames.com, was started in 1995 and became what is now Yahoo! Games.
- My website WorldVillage.com was started also in 1995 and continues to be a favorite family-friendly portal to this day.
- My book The AdSense Code came about only after I was earning several hundred dollars per day with Google AdSense.

I'm not trying to brag: I'm just an average guy lucky enough to crack the code to generating serious money online. I started out doing what I loved:

- Reviewing video games, which led to ClassicGames.com.
- Finding ways to save money, which led to WorldVillage.com and other family-friendly websites.
- Tweaking my own sites to earn more money, which led to my unsought-for title "Dr. AdSense".

The saying: "Do what you love and the money will follow" has certainly been validated by my experience, and I feel fortunate I can pass on what I've learned to others.

My Most Valuable Resource

My love of teaching and helping people have been the impetus for forming my own "rock star" team that I trust to build my own business and help deliver great, actionable content to my customers.

A few of my team include:

- Ken Burge, who started WorldVillage.com with me back in 1995, and went on to Texas Instruments and Microsoft before coming back on board earlier this year.

- Timothy Prince...
- Dan Nickerson...
- Joel Ownby...

After years of going it alone in this business, I learned that the single best thing I could do to take things to the next level was to hire the smartest, most capable team of winners I could find.

That's just what I've been doing for the past few years.

Today, my team includes some of the best talent in the business. These are pros with years of proven experience in all disciplines including business strategy, idea generation, public speaking, copywriting, marketing, SEO (Search Engine Optimization), PPC (Pay Per Click), and more.

And I'm sharing my team with you at the Elevate Seminar.

What Will The Seminar Include?

The Elevate Seminar will focus on everything you need to know to successfully run your online business.

- Days 1 and 2 will be two full days of teaching by me and my team.
- Day 3 will be a full day of masterminding with me, my team, and your fellow seminar attendees.
- You'll also receive a workbook packed with valuable information that will help you apply the principles and strategies we teach.

Imagine: three days of focused attention on your business, with 50 like-minded serious colleagues, my staff, and me. We are only accepting attendees who have a business and are ready to take it to the next level. No whiners or "know-it-alls" allowed! I can't think of a better environment for you to figure out how to improve your business and map out your success plan.

You (and your business) will leave changed. Count on it.

What Else Do I Get?

If that were all we provided, you would be very happy with the value offered. But we didn't stop there!

You are going to be blown away with the bonuses we are offering in addition to the teaching and masterminding.

- First-class entertainment for the first two evenings...and you'll have the opportunity to network with us and your fellow attendees before, during, and after the shows.
- Videos of the event (others will pay at least $1,000...you get them for free!)

And if that's not enough to dazzle you, we are also doing something else unprecedented:

- Lodging for three nights is on us.

That's right. Your admission fee includes the cost of lodging at the beautiful Inverness Hotel in Englewood (near Denver), Colorado! This alone is a value of over $600! This is a first class hotel that will be the perfect setting for my one-of-a-kind event.
